

問 8 次の英文を読んで、あとの(ア)～(ウ)の問いに答えなさい。

One day in January, Naoki, Yumi, and their ALT Ms. Brown are talking in the classroom.

Naoki : Yumi, I'm going to play tennis in the park with my friends and Ms. Brown this Saturday afternoon. Can you play tennis with us?

Yumi : This Saturday afternoon? It's January 19...

*Yumi opens her pocketbook.

A Part of Yumi's Pocketbook (January)

Yumi : Sorry, I'm going to go to a concert with my friends.

Naoki : I see. Oh, you have a nice pocketbook.

Yumi : Thanks. I like it very much. I buy a pocketbook every year and bought this one last month. I always have this pocketbook with me.

Naoki : I think it's cool to use a pocketbook.

Ms. Brown : Yumi, what do you *write down on it?

Yumi : Well, *schedules like school events, *appointments with my friends, and my friends' birthdays. And I always write down my *goals and the things I want to do, too.

Ms. Brown : That's great. When did you start to use a pocketbook?

Yumi : I started to use one when I became a junior high school student. At that time, I was very busy, and sometimes forgot the things I had to do. So, I bought a pocketbook and started to write down my schedules on it.

Naoki : I see. *Actually, I have bought a pocketbook before. But I had only a few things to write down, so I stopped using it soon. Now, if I have a plan, I write down it on a *calendar in my room.

*Then, Yumi and Naoki's homeroom teacher Mr. Maeda, comes into the classroom and talks to them.

Mr. Maeda : Hello, Yumi, Naoki, Ms. Brown. Oh, you use a nice pocketbook, Yumi.

Yumi : Thank you very much. Do you use a pocketbook, Mr. Maeda?

Mr. Maeda : Of course. I write down my schedules on it.

Naoki : Teachers look busy every day.

Ms. Brown : We have a lot of things to do. I started to use a pocketbook after coming to Japan. I'm always surprised to see that bookstores in Japan sell many kinds of pocketbooks.

Mr. Maeda : Yes, especially *working adults. We can also find books about how to choose a pocketbook or how to use a pocketbook at a bookstore.

Ms. Brown : That's interesting. I think people in Japan like to *make plans *in advance.

Yumi : I think so, too. When I want to do something with my friends, I talk with them and make plans in advance.

Naoki : Me, too. How about people in America, Ms. Brown?

Ms. Brown : I don't think they make plans in advance so often. When I was in America, I usually talked with my friends and decided what to do *on the same day.

Naoki : I sometimes do that, but I usually make plans in advance. Now I understand the *difference about how to make plans between people in America and people in Japan.

Yumi : I think it's interesting.
