問8 次の英文を読んで、あとの(ア)～(ウ)の問いに答えなさい。

Kazuya and Maki, high school students, are talking with Ms. Wilson, an ALT from America, in the classroom after school.

Kazuya : Ms. Wilson, you have lived in Japan for four months. How's your life in Japan ?

Ms. Wilson : Great ! Everyone has been kind to me since I came here in August. I'm having a good time here.

Maki : Do you like our school ?

Ms. Wilson : Of course, I do. The school festival in October was wonderful. At the festival, I *was dressed in kimono and made Japanese tea with the students of the *tea ceremony club. I was glad that many people enjoyed our tea. I was also happy because I could wear kimono ! That was my first time to wear it. I saw it in pictures when I was in my country, and I always wanted to wear it. Oh, look at ① this picture.

Maki : Wow ! You look great in kimono.

Ms. Wilson : Thank you, Maki. I borrowed it from Ms. Sato, a music teacher. She also showed me how to wear it.

Maki : That's nice. I usually wear yukata when I go to the summer festival, but I have never tried kimono. I want to try it someday.

Kazuya : Who is the man drinking tea by the window in the picture ?

Ms. Wilson : Oh, he is my brother. He teaches English in this city, too. He visited this school with his friend that day. The man next to him is his friend. He works at a restaurant in this city. They really enjoyed our tea and the festival. I like to join school events in this school. Well, what school event do you like, Maki ?

Maki : I love the *chorus *contest. I played the piano for our class every year. We took first *place this year !

Ms. Wilson : I like playing the piano and singing songs, so . Now I know your favorite event, Maki. How about you, Kazuya ?

Kazuya : I like the English speech contest. This year I made an English speech *in front of many students in our school.

*was dressed in ～ : ～を着た tea ceremony club : 茶道部 chorus : 合唱 contest : コンクール, コンテスト ～ place : ～位 in front of ～ : ～の前で

Ms. Wilson : I remember your speech. The contest was held soon after I came to this school. I arrived at this school in the morning, and I listened to your speech in the afternoon on that day. You talked about your future, right ?

Kazuya : Yes, I want to win a national tennis tournament.

Maki : You're a very good tennis player. I hope your dream will come true. Ms. Wilson, look at ②the *table on the *bulletin board.

Ms. Wilson : The one on the left ?

Maki : Yes. It shows the five popular school events in our class.

Ms. Wilson : I see. The most popular event in your class is Kazuya : It's the *sports day. About 30% of the students in our class like it the most. We join many kinds of *races and performances. And many families come to enjoy the event.

Maki : I don't like running but I always enjoy dancing. It's fun. Ms. Wilson, Kazuya is *not only a good tennis player but also a very good runner. He always gets first place in the marathon.

Ms. Wilson : Wow ! Kazuya, you're really good at sports !

Kazuya : Well, I run for one hour every day at school before I practice tennis.

Maki : The number of students who like the school festival is almost the same.

Ms. Wilson : I see. What's in third place ?

Kazuya : It's the school trip. We stayed in Kyoto and Osaka for four days in May. We visited many interesting places. I really had a good time.

Maki : Me, too. The food there was also delicious.

Ms. Wilson : I've never been to Kyoto and Osaka, but I heard Kyoto is one of the oldest cities in Japan, right ?

Kazuya : Yes. There are many old temples and shrines.

Ms. Wilson : Osaka is famous for its food, right ? I want to eat okonomiyaki and takoyaki there.

Kazuya : We had them there. They were really delicious.

Ms. Wilson : Oh, I have to visit Osaka, too.

Maki : The chorus contest is popular in our class, too. It's in fourth place.

Ms. Wilson : Kazuya, you enjoyed the fifth event several months ago, right ?

Kazuya : Yes, that's right.

Ms. Wilson : I'm glad that we have nice events in this school.
