Lily: Hi Aya, what are you looking at?

Aya: It's a brochure for a ski tour. My family is going on a ski trip this winter. It will be my first time skiing. I'm excited!

Lily: Oh, that's great. I like skiing very much. I have been skiing since I was five years old.

Aya: Then, you are good at skiing.

Lily: Well, I have tried many different ski *slopes before. It was *scary at first, but now I enjoy skiing on difficult slopes.

Aya: Would you like to join us? I know my family thinks it's a good idea, too.

Lily: That sounds nice. I'm sure my *host family will be OK about it. When are you going to leave?

Aya: We will leave on January 5th. Is that OK for you?

Lily: I think so. I will tell my host mother about it.

Aya: I will tell my family that you will come with us.

Lily: I can't wait!

Satoru : What are you doing?

Maria : I'm gathering garbage for the collection tomorrow morning. We had a party yesterday and *drank a lot of *canned juice.

Satoru : I'll help you!

Maria : Oh, that's very kind of you, Satoru.

Satoru : Recycling cans and plastic bottles is a great idea.

Maria : I think so, too. These things are collected every Monday. I work on Monday to Friday, so it's difficult for me to take them to the Recycling Center.

Satoru : I see. How about a *light bulb? I just put a new one for my *light.

Maria : We will have to keep it until Thursday this week.

Satoru : OK. Oh, I just got a paper *package from my family. Is paper collected on the regular garbage days?

Maria : Well, paper can be recycled. So, can you put it in the blue *bin there? I can take it out on Wednesday next week.

Satoru : I have more paper in my room! I will put them in the blue bin later. The bin will be *heavy, so I will take it out on Wednesday morning next week!

Maria : Thanks, Satoru!
