Sakura is studying at a high school in the U.S. Ben, Kevin, and May are her classmates. They are talking in the classroom after school.

Ben : How do you like your life at this school, Sakura ?

Sakura : Wonderful ! I've made a lot of good friends like you, and all the teachers are very kind. I have many things to learn, but I'm enjoying studying at this school.

Kevin : That's good. By the way, we have "Green" events next month. I'm sure you can learn more about this school and enjoy your life here more if you join them.

Sakura : "Green" events ? What kinds of events are they ?

Kevin : At these events, we have several *activities like volunteer work for other people and interesting activities to learn about *nature. This school has had these events for ten years. They're held in November every year.

May : Here is the program of this year's events.

Date	Name of Event	*Contents
November 1	Make Yourself Green !	Wear something green in our school
November 5-7	*Cleaning Volunteer Work	Clean the river near our school
November 13	Beach Tour	Go to the beach by bike and eat lunch there
November 21	Museum Tour	Go to the museum and learn about the *forest
November 25-27	Book Volunteer Work	Send books to children in poor countries / Collect money from students

Sakura : Wow, we have five different events. Can we *choose some events *freely and join them ?

May : Yes. You can join all the events if you have time. Actually, I did so last year.

Ben : On the first day of the events, teachers and students wear something green. All the students must join this event. Sakura, do you have anything green to wear ?

Sakura : Well, I don't think so. Do I have to buy something ?

May : No, you don't. I have some good things, so I can lend you one.

Sakura : Thank you. I'd like to wear it and enjoy the event. Well, tell me about the other events.

Ben : OK. There are two volunteer activities. To clean the river and to send books to poor kids. I'm going to join both of them. I think it is important to do something for other people.

Sakura : You are right. I think doing volunteer work makes us more *considerate. I have visited a hospital and done some volunteer work in Japan. It was one of the best experiences for me. I want to join one of these volunteer activities.

Kevin : Then, how about this volunteer activity ? We can help children in poor countries. I'm going to join it.

Sakura : That sounds good, but I have a question. Why do we have to collect money from students ? Do we need money to buy books ?

Kevin : No. We won't buy any books. We will bring books from our homes. We just need money to send the books abroad.

Sakura : I see. I think I can get some money from our classmates, but I have no books to bring. What should I do ?

Ben : Don't worry. I joined this volunteer activity last year. There were many different jobs. For example, you can *check the books brought to school by other students. Kevin and I will join this and we can help you.

Sakura : OK. Let's work together.

Ben : Good. Well, why don't you join the other volunteer work ?

Sakura : I'm interested in it, too, but I have tests for science and math on November 8. I will have to study for them for a few days before that, so I can't do that volunteer work.

Kevin : Hey, look at this. This event is new. I think this activity is the most exciting. Why don't we join this together ? I'm sure we will have a very good time at the beach. Riding a bike is fun and eating outside makes food more delicious.

Ben : That sounds good. I agree. I'll bring some cake for *dessert. Do you want to have some ?

May : Your father will make it, right ? *If so, yes, I want to have some. I love your father's cake. Sakura, will you come ? Ben's father is a *pastry cook.

Sakura : Really ? I want to join this event and try your father's cake.

Ben : All right. I'll *ask my father for enough cake for four. Then, how about this culture event ? Will anyone join it ?

May : I won't join it. I joined this event last year, and it was a little boring. I've learned that it isn't much fun to go to a museum *in a group.

Kevin : I agree with you. We should go there *personally if we want.

Sakura : OK, everyone. I'll take your *advice. Now I've decided to join these three events.

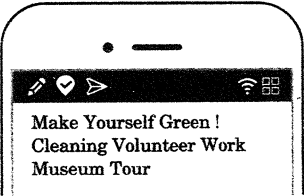

I'll *type them on my *smartphone to remember them.
