*Kaori and her father are looking at a flyer about a *cruise. They want to go on the cruise for Kaori's mother's birthday. Kaori is a junior high school student and she has a younger brother, Kota.*

Kaori : I don't think we can go on the cruise between Monday and Thursday.

Father : You're right.

Kaori : I think Saturday is the best because mom's birthday is Saturday this year.

Father : Yes. But she loves to see fireworks, right? The *price is the highest, but it's her birthday. What do you think?

Kaori : That's nice! Kota also likes fireworks. He told me that he enjoyed watching fireworks at the Tanabata festival at his *kindergarten last month.

Father : OK, great!

Kaori : Well, mom's birthday is August 20th and it's August 1st today. Let's *make a reservation! I hope mom will like the special plan for her birthday.

Shota and Laura asked their classmates a question and made the table of a *result. They are talking about it.

Shota : Hi, Laura. I made a table of our *survey. What do you think?

Laura : I had no idea that walking was the most popular sport among the girls.

Shota : I asked some of my classmates about it. One said that walking was very *relaxing. Another said she liked it because she could talk with her friends *while they were walking.

Laura : Oh, I see. That's a good point!

Shota : About the same number of boys and girls like basketball. I like both playing and watching it.

Laura : Baseball and soccer aren't very popular among girls. *Less than 5 % of the girls like baseball.

Shota : The numbers for soccer and swimming are the same.

Laura : That's right. The numbers for the girls are about half of the numbers for the boys for the two sports.

Shota : Well, let's show the table to the class tomorrow.
